

Saturday, June 29, 2019 at the Sheboygan Rifle and Pistol Club (SRPC)

Registration is required before June 24, 2019

Designed by women for women. Women on Target is an entry level class and range experience designed for females to increase their comfort level with firearms. The course is intended to be a pressure free environment to learn basic firearm safety and knowledge, have your questions answered, and experience the opportunity to shoot both pistols and rifles in a controlled and safe atmosphere. The class has a focus on safety and directed to a part of the community who may otherwise miss out.

For additional information and register online for the Women on Target class on Saturday June 29th, go to the Women on Target's web-page at:
